About the Cost of the Trip

At present (January 29, 2010), it could wind up costing slightly more than the $3,750.00 cost, in which case the difference would be added to your final payment due on May 1, 2011. It could wind up costing slightly less than the $3,750.00 cost, in which case you will get a refund prior to departure for Ireland. At present (January 29, 2010) there are certain variables that we don't have any control over, such as the value of the Euro against the dollar in 2011, fuel surcharges suddenly imposed by the airlines or other airline costs. We should be able to lock the cost down as time goes by, but at present (January 29, 2010), if we were going on the current value of the Euro against the dollar, which has gone down, and we were departing today, you would each be receiving a $100.00 refund from the $3,750.00 cost. For further questions about this, contact Michael A. Craig at (713) 882-0172.
